Most Negro Candidates Are Beaten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Freedom Inc., an organization dedicated to continuance of freedom-of-choice plans of desegregation, won three school board positions at Pine Bluff in Tuesday's school elections.

In other elections around the state, most Negro candidates seeking positions on various school boards were soundly defeated but one Negro ousted a white incumbent.

The single issue in the Pine Bluff School Board race was desegregation. The three incumbents stood on their record of having adopted a plan calling for total desegregation in its district by 1970 in order to avoid the loss of federal funds.

The Freedom Inc. slate of Al Morris, Dr. Leon Francis and Ben Pearson won easily over Paul Young, John Fox and Dr. W. L. Molette, a Negro. The margin in each race was more than 1,000 votes.

However, Mrs. Gary Cooper, a Freedom Inc. candidate at Warren, failed to unseat incumbent John Scooby, who polled 1,014 votes to Mrs. Cooper's 823.

Bill Johnson won a position on the West Memphis-Hubert School Board over Charles Douglas Jr., a Negro, and two other candidates. Johnson had 763 votes and Douglas was second with 534.

Edwin Evans, a Negro, defeated incumbent Beryl Bitley, white, for a seat on the Lincoln School Board in Jefferson County. The vote was 118-82. This makes the board's ratio four Negroes to one white.

Robert J. Bowen Jr., mayor of Altheimer and an incumbent on the city's school board, defeated T. R. Wyatt, a Negro, in the district's election. The vote was 282-81.

Clyde Archer of Wright, an incumbent on the Plum Bayou-Tucker School Board, defeated Robert Lee Finley Sr., a Negro, by a vote of 177-139.

Morris Wood defeated Mrs. E. Boone Watson, a Negro, in a three-candidate race at Jonesboro. Wood had 713 votes to Mrs. Watson's 577. Ware Watson polled 315 votes.

At Blytheville, Dr. James G. Guard, a school board incumbent, defeated Mrs. Harry V. White, a Negro. The vote was 1,014 for Guard and 769 for Mrs. White.

At Bearden, a white incumbent, Homer Harold Jones, defeated a Negro opponent, Fred Lambert, by a vote of 500-308.

In the Camden Fairview School District, Joe Wilson, a white candidate, had 395 votes to beat a Negro opponent, Frank Anderson, who had 144 votes, and three other whites.

Attacks Drop But More May Be Coming

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong's rocket and mortar attacks dropped off sharply today, but American officers said it might be only a pause in the enemy's 18-day-old spring offensive.

U.S. sources pointed out that the Communist command still has thousands of troops it has not committed to the offensive yet. They said a new wave of attacks could come any day and that the rest of this week is a critical period.

Allied spokesmen reported 20 rocket and mortar attacks on allied bases and towns during the night, compared to about 60 the night before. U.S. headquarters said casualties were light.

RFK Paintings Up for Sale

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fifteen paintings hanging in the New York apartment of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy when he was assassinated have been offered for sale at the Washington Gallery of Art.

Price on the paintings is said to range from $900 to more than $6,000.

The largest, a beach scene in the south of France, hung in the master bedroom. A smaller scene, showing colorfully clad jockeys with their horses, still bears a typewritten notation from Ethel Kennedy with instructions to hang it on the wall over the bureau in one of the children's rooms.

One sailing scene shows a man at the helm of a sailboat who looks much like Robert Kennedy. The original price tag of $1,600 is still attached.

Ray Begins Long Term in Prison

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — James Earl Ray will live for the next six weeks or so in a prison cell nine feet long and six feet wide, with the Negro slayer of a policeman as his nearest neighbor.

The confessed assassin of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., will occupy the cell—No. 4 in the state penitentiary's maximum security section—while undergoing orientation and classification.

Then, Warden Lake Russell said Tuesday, Ray will be assigned a prison job and treated as far as possible like other inmates while serving time against his 99-year sentence. It will be 30 years before Ray, 41, can be eligible for parole.

In the occupied cell closest to him is William Garvin Allen, a Black Power advocate convicted earlier this year of killing a member of the Nashville police force.

Allen said he had no special feeling about his proximity to Ray.

"As far as I am concerned," said Allen, "society is what killed King."

Living in the security section will mark a distinct change from the fishbowl existence Ray led in the Memphis jail while he waited eight months for disposition of his case.

Pueblo Cmdr. Guided by Instructions

By RICHARD E. MEYER
Associated Press Writer
CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher wound up defense of his surrender of the USS Pueblo without a fight by saying he was guided most by instructions not to provoke an international incident.

"I really felt strongly about my orders about not provoking an international incident and I think this more than anything else guided my actions on this day," Bucher said Tuesday as the five admirals on a Navy court of inquiry asked their sharpest questions.

It was the Pueblo's skipper's final appearance before the court, in the closing days of an eight-week-old inquiry into the intelligence ship's seizure last year by North Koreans and the conduct of its crew during 11-months of captivity.

Bucher opened the hearing with a narrative of the ship's capture and the crew's subsequent torture by the North Korea. He returned a few weeks later to answer questions. His third appearance was at his own request to amplify questions he felt hadn't been fully answered during the inquiry.

Kansas Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller who accompanied Sarver, said, "I am appalled at the treatment Mr. Sarver received personally and the state of Arkansas collectively. This is not the last this subcommittee will hear from Arkansas."

The hearing was marked by repeated clashes between Dodd and Sarver. Twice Dodd, who had committee staff director Carl Perlan continually whispering in his ear, told Scott to stop whispering answers to Sarver.

School Mill Hikes Are Defeated

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Nearly all millage increases needed for school construction to accommodate expanded school desegregation were defeated in Tuesday's school elections in Arkansas.

A two-mill tax increase needed to finance construction of an addition to El Dorado High School in order to absorb students from predominantly Negro Washington was beaten by district patrons.

This means the district must prepare a plan of desegregation for presentation in U.S. District Court by April 1.

Warren, also involved in litigation in U.S. District Court over desegregation, also defeated a bond issue that would have financed construction of a new high school.

The millage increase was defeated by a vote of 813 for to 1,038 against. The district now has until April 1 to present a desegregation plan other than the current freedom-of-choice.

A proposal to consolidate the McGhee and Dermott school districts in order to build a new high school between the cities was approved by Dermott voters and defeated by McGhee patrons.

At Dermott, the vote was 509 for consolidation and 185 against. McGhee voters defeated the proposal 245-925. The total vote was 754 for and 1,110 against.

Other bond issues voted on Tuesday included:

CSCOLA — Approved a 3-mill tax increase to finance a $1,380,000 bond issue to construct a new high school and expand present facilities. The vote was 977-167.

LITTLE ROCK — Approved continuation of the district's 47-mill tax to finance a $2.5 million bond issue to be used for construction and remodeling of the city's schools.

MARION — Approved a five-mill increase in their 51-mill tax to authorize a $1 million bond issue for high school construction. The vote was 289-171.

MONTICELLO — Approved a 10-mill tax increase to support a $480,000 bond issue for school construction. The vote was 635-365.

MALVERN — Approved a seven-mill increase in the 42-mill tax rate to support a $1,803,000 bond issue for construction of a new high school and refunding of existing bonds. The vote was 1,385-301.

BATESVILLE — Approved a $400,000 bond issue for construction of a new gym and athletic plant. The vote was 739-543.

RUSSELLVILLE — Approved a five-mill increase for a 53-mill total to back a $1,891,000 bond issue to finance construction of a new high school. The vote was 1,298-1,083.

PIGGOTT — Defeated a six-mill increase to 42 mills to finance a $300,000 school remodeling program. The vote was 121-461.

SHERIDAN — Approved a 10-mill increase to finance a $1,233,000 bond issue that would be used to build a high school, a cafeteria at the elementary school, classrooms and other improvements. The vote was 455-280.

SEARCY — Approved a five-mill increase to finance a $600,000 bond issue that would be used to expand Searcy High School and all four of the city's elementary schools. The vote was 619-123.

BATESVILLE — Approved a six-mill increase to finance a $400,000 bond issue that would be used to build a physical education building and an athletic field. The vote was 699-527.

WILMOT (Ashley County) — Approved a seven-mill increase to finance a $438,000 bond issue to help pay for school construction. The vote was 255-151.

FORDYCE — Approved a nine-mill increase to finance a $1,087,000 bond issue that would be used to finance construction of a new high school building. The vote was 658-337.

BAY BROWN (Craighead County) — Approved an eight-mill increase to finance a bond issue for funds to build additional classroom facilities. The vote was 177-108.

BROOKLAND (Craighead County) — Approved an eight-mill tax increase to finance construction of additional classrooms. The vote was 181-69.

WESTSIDE (Craighead County) — Defeated a three-mill increase for operating costs. The vote was 275-301.

SEARCY — Approved a five-mill increase to 50 mills. The increase is expected to produce $600,000 which will be used for construction of additional classrooms. The vote was 419-123.

FORT SMITH — Approved the continuation of a 49 mill tax. The vote was 2,774 for and 864 against.

FORDYCE — Approved a $1,087,000 school bond issue by a vote of 658-337.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyful song and singing praises!—Psalms 98:4.

A man isn't poor if he can still laugh.—Raymond Hitchcock, American actor.

live missiles.

In the Senate, Massachusetts' Edward M. Kennedy said "each increase in arms generates an increase in tension and each increase in tension leads us closer to hostilities."

"We do stand at yet another crossroads in the nuclear arms race," said Kennedy, "and cannot let the opportunity to pursue the path of peace pass us by."

As Democratic whip, Kennedy has been a leader of Sentinel opposition in the Senate, which an Associated Press poll pegged over the weekend at a certain 47 with 29 more undecided.

It was becoming increasingly clear, however, that if Nixon could get approval of continued Sentinel expenditures from the Senate by compromise he could expect relatively clear sailing in the House.

"I think if the President recommends it, the Congress would pass it," said House Democratic Leader Carl Albert.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford, commenting after Nixon met with GOP congressional leaders, said he personally is in favor of deployment.

"If you have to gamble and err," said Ford, "it is better to gamble and err on the side of strength and not weakness."

MISS CYNTHIA LOU McCORMACK

Major and Mrs. Paul W. McCormack, Route 1, Hope, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Cynthia Lou, to Jessie Crews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olen

Crews of Zolfo Springs, Florida. Miss McCormack is a Freshman at Southern State College, majoring in nursing. Mr. Crews is a Senior at Southern State College, majoring in Physical Education.

Wedding plans will be announced later.

VICTORY HOMEMAKERS MEET

Mrs. Renee Willett was hostess for a meeting of the Victory Extension Homemakers Club on Wednesday, March 5. After the president, Mrs. Cecil Smith, had called the meeting to order, all joined in singing "Pack Up Your Troubles" and "My Wild Irish Rose" under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Cash.

Three visitors at the club were Mrs. Eurlie Calhoun and little Kevin and Kendell England. The hostess gave the devotion, and the president read the Thought of the Month. The roll call was answered with "How I Prepare a Vegetable to be Tasty and Attractive." It was agreed to help serve at the poultry festival this year and to send $1 per member to the 4-H Club Building in Washington, D.C. Looking for and identifying unmarked Confederate graves will be another club project for the coming year.

Mrs. Clayborn Rowe won the surprise package, and she, Mrs. Nina McCorkle, received gifts from their Secret Pals. Mrs. Claudia England was the recipient of a lovely stock shower. The Homemakers Creed was repeated for the dismissal.

Mrs. McKinney directed the game, "Pass the Peas," and the St. Patrick's Day theme was used for the sandwich plate which was served with lime punch. The April meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Pearl Cash.

LAMB - TALLEY EXCHANGE VOWS

Miss Bevia Sue Talley and Luther Edward Lamb were united in marriage at the Church of Christ, Saint Jo, Texas January 18 with Joe Thompson officiating. The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli and candelabra decorated with greenery.

Miss Talley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Talley of Saint Jo, and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Lamb of Hope.

The bride was presented in marriage by her father and wore a long gown of white organza and lace with long pointed sleeves. The headpiece of white flowers and pearls accented the shoulder length veil. She also wore a locket which was her grandmother's and is 54 years old. She carried a white satin Bible topped with her flowers of white carnations.

Bonnie Pochoke sang "Wedding Prayer."

Miss Rebecca Boyd, San Antonio, was the maid of honor. She was attired in a A-line street dress of red crepe and carried a long stem red carnation. Miss Sharon Norris, Glendale, Ark. served as bridesmaid. She was dressed identical to the maid of honor.

Candlelighters were Karla and Jack Hanks of Gainesville. Kathy Dennis, Saint Jo, was the flower girl. Kenny Garylean, Wichita Falls, was the ring bearer.

Larry Talley, brother of the bride, and Lyndol Pochoke, Dallas, served as ushers. Pete Montgomery, Dallas, served as best men. Groomsman was Edgar Day of Dallas.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. The serving table was decorated with red and a white lace overlay, accented with a center-piece of white carnations and a three tiered wedding cake topped with a bride and groom.

Miss Charlotte Miller registered the guests and Miss Rebecca Boyd served the wedding cake. Miss Sharon Norris served the punch.

Eddie Lamb was host for a rehearsal party held at the Sands in Nocona.

The bride is a graduate of

Use Like Powder

If you are ever caught without a deodorant, and can't get to a store and if you have some baking soda in the house, just pat it on as you would powder.

Texas A&M Just Might Upset Drake

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Let the Drake Bulldogs beware.

Hardly anyone gives Texas A&M of the Southwest Conference a chance against the Bulldogs of the Missouri Valley Conference in the NCAA post-season basketball championship tourney Thursday.

Drake, 23-4 and boasting a 10-game winning streak, meet the Aggies 18-7 in the NCAA Midwest Regional at Manhattan, Kan., and on paper seem a shoo-in.

But the same situation prevailed in the Midwest Regionals last season and the year before. On each occasion the SWC representative upset the dope. Last year Texas Christian beat Kansas State 77-72. In 1967 Southern Methodist astounded Louisville 83-81.

So when Shelby Metcalf, Texas A&M coach, declares, "We've got to stop their fast break and I don't think that's been done," let Drake take fair warning.

The game is one of eight regional NCAA games which, along with the opening of the NIT tourney in New York, highlights Thursday's program.

Colorado and Colorado State U. meet in the other Midwest NCAA Regional at Manhattan. In the East Regional at College Park, it's St. John's, N.Y., vs. Davidson and Duquesne vs. North Carolina. At Madison, Wis. in the Midwest Regional, it's Kentucky vs. Marquette and Purdue vs. Miami of Ohio. At Los Angeles in the West Regional, it's Santa Clara vs. Weber State and New Mexico State vs. UCLA.

Florida is pitted against Temple and St. Peter's, N.J., against Tulsa in the opening first-round doubleheader of the NIT.

While the big boys are waiting offstage, the small college teams take the spotlight today.

The quarter-finals of the NCAA college division are scheduled at Evansville, Ind.

Kentucky Wesleyan, the defending champion, meets Oglethorpe and Ashland, Ohio, No. 1 in The Associated Press final poll, goes after Illinois State in a night doubleheader.

San Francisco State met American International and Montclair, N.J., State faced Southwest Missouri in an afternoon twin bill.

Second round games in the NIT tourney at Kansas City included top-seeded Fairmont, W. Va., State against Washburn, fourth-seeded High Point against Whittier and sixth-seeded Cannon against Henderson.

Fairmont rolled over Indiana Central 93-75. High Point downed Missouri-St. Louis 102-90 and Cannon crushed Jackson, Miss. State 81-58 as the field was set to 16 Tuesday.

In other NIT games Tuesday, Henderson edged St. John's Minn., 78-76, Maryland State overcame Wartburg 99-90, Whit-

Bulls Lick Atlanta to Keep Alive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Jim Washington warmed up Chicago's largest National Basketball Association crowd in three years with an 80-foot flip before the Bulls stopped the show by staging a Love-In.

Reserve Bob Love came off the bench and scored 12 points in the last quarter Tuesday night, leading the Bulls to a 102-90 victory over Atlanta that kept their Western Division playoff drive alive.

A crowd of 11,250 saw Washington put in an 80-foot desperation shot at the first half buzzer and then team with Love to nail the Bulls' first victory in six meetings with the Hawks this season.

The San Diego Rockets, paced by Elvin Hayes' 33 points, beat Phoenix 116-106 and remained two percentage points behind Chicago in the battle for the fourth and last playoff berth in the West.

Elsewhere, Dave DeBusschere scored 38 points as New York whipped Philadelphia 121-101 and Wilt Chamberlain put in 34, hitting on all 14 of his shots from the floor, as Los Angeles crushed Detroit 137-101.

In the American Basketball Association, Minnesota nipped Houston 130-128, Indiana downed New York 122-112 and Los Angeles defeated Oakland 131-115.

Love replaced Bob Boozer in the last quarter at Chicago and hit five field goals and two free throws, "breaking" open the game. Washington contributed eight points, eight rebounds and five assists in the closing rally and finished with a game-high of 26 points.

San Diego rolled to a 74-48 halftime bulge and then held off the Suns' late surge, with Hayes canning several key baskets down the stretch. Rockets rookie Rick Adelman scored 28 points and added eight assists.

DeBusschere popped in 21 points in the second half, helping the Knicks protect a 16-point intermission edge and move within one game of the second place 76ers in the East. He also grabbed 17 rebounds before a crowd of 19,177, which brought the Knicks' season home attendance to 548,663—an all-time NBA record.

Chamberlain pushed his 10-year point total to 27,003 and poked off 26 rebounds as the Lakers breezed to a 70-42 halftime lead and won going away.

Retzlaff May Be New Eagle Coach

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Now that Leonard Tose is upon the Philadelphia Eagles' scene, can Pete Retzlaff be far behind?

Tose, a Norristown, Pa., trucking executive awarded conditional ownership of the Eagles Tuesday by a bankruptcy referee in Baltimore, favors the former football great as his coach, and possibly, general manager as well.

The Associated Press learned Tose leans toward Retzlaff shortly after Joseph O. Kaiser, a Baltimore bankruptcy referee, awarded the National Football League team to Tose on a conditional basis.

Tose won the right to purchase the team with a last-ditch offer of $16,055,000 that topped by $5,000 a bid submitted by Thomas D. McCloskey, a Philadelphia builder.

The purchase, for the present, balls out Jerry Wolman, who is fighting to retain ownership. If Wolman can raise $37 million to pay off creditors by Aug. 1, then he reclaims the team.

Under terms outlined by Kaiser, Tose has 10 days to finalize purchase details with Wolman and his creditors.

Wolman said after the five-hour hearing in U.S. District Court he expects to be able to consolidate his other holdings and raise money to regain the team.

Although neither was available for comment, The Associated Press learned that "Retzlaff, one of the NFL's all-time great tight ends, is Tose's No. 1 choice."

It was learned Tose feels Coach-General Manager Joe Kuharich must go to restore the Eagles' public image. Kuharich, who had four losing seasons in five years, has been under fire by the fans and press.

Retzlaff played 11 seasons with the Eagles and ranked as the fifth-best receiver in NFL history at his retirement two years ago.

The 37-year-old Retzlaff became a television sportscaster in Philadelphia upon his retirement from the Eagles.

NEW YORK (NEA)—Dean Chance has this look in his light blue eyes, and you don't know if he is going to leap or fall asleep. Quixotic, at any rate.

But right now teeth were foremost on his mind.

"Ray," called Chance, "Ray, come over here and show 'em your teeth."

Ray Anderson is Chance's fighter, the one he took on to supplement his pool parlor in Minneapolis, his pigs and cows on his Wooster, Ohio, farm, and his right arm, which toils for the Minnesota Twins.

"The first thing we did was fix up his teeth," said Chance. "It cost me two thousand dollars." This was at the party Chance threw in a restaurant to unveil his fighter. And Chance was waving his right arm to attract Anderson.

This same arm is under contract dispute between Chance and his employer, Calvin Griffith. Someone asked Chance why he wasn't in spring training, where baseball players often go this time of year.

"First," he said, "there was the strike—Ray, come over and show 'em the teeth—then there is the cut."

"Griffith cut me 15 per cent. That's $9,000 from the sixty grand I was making last year."

"He told me he couldn't pay a .500 pitcher any more than that. But I was second in the league in innings pitched. Second in the league in shutouts. I have 16 lifetime 1-0 wins. Only Walter Johnson had more, 27 or something like that. And I won the Cy Young Award in 1964."

"But Griffith said I had a 16-16 record last year. That's true. I guess that does make me a .500 pitcher." Somehow, Chance did not seem convinced.

"But Griffith hates me because I'm independent, because he can't kick me around. He's the toughest guy in baseball to deal with. He's trying to cut everybody 15 or 20 per cent."

This baseball talk had gone far enough. "Hey, wait a minute," he said, putting an arm around his fighter. "Here's a guy who's going to make us a lot of money. Smile Ray." Anderson's gleaming teeth nearly outshone his plum-colored suit.

"Two thousand dollar smile," said Chance. "I know you gotta take care of your teeth when you're an athlete. I sent Ray to Minneapolis and we found he had four abscessed teeth, with little holes and pus coming out of the gums. It was poisoning his system and making him weak. Now he's got caps, fillings, inlays, the whole works. Beautiful, huh?"

"It used to hurt me when I got hit on the right side," said Anderson, smiling with every syllable. "Now, if anyone hits me there, that's the end of 'em."

Anderson won the Ohio State light-heavyweight boxing championship recently, on the same card with a Jerry Quarry-Aaron Eastling bout. The card was promoted by Chance, his first such venture. He was impressed with Anderson, who had shed his previous manager, and they, along with Joseph (Blackie) Gennaro of Youngstown, created Ohio Boxing Inc.

Chance was impressed with Anderson's athletic talent (22 wins in 23 fights) his alertness ("Ray's smart and very intelligent, too") and his flamboyance.

"He had a friend play a bullfight song on a trumpet as he came into the ring," said Chance. "And he wore a black velvet cape with red satin lining. For his next fight, we're going to get an all-girl band to lead him in the ring."

Chance has similar attributes of talent, alertness and flamboyance. It seems, however, that Griffith doesn't appreciate them in Chance, the way Chance does in Anderson. (Newspaper Enterprise Assoc.)

Alworth Was Champ at Pass Snagging

NEW YORK (AP) — Karl Noonan of Miami was a unique pass catching individual in the American Football League last season.

According to the final statistics released today, Noon was the only player among the top seven receivers who isn't a San Diego Charger, a New York Jet or an Oakland Raider.

The Dolphin split end was fourth with 58 catches.

Ahead of him were Lance Alworth of San Diego, the champion for the second time in three years with 68 catches for 1,312 yards; New York's George Sauer with 66 and Fred Blue of Oakland with 61.

Behind him were Don Maynard of New York, 57; Oakland's Warren Wells, 53, and Gary Garrison of San Diego, 52.

Noonan and Wells each caught the most touchdowns, 11, while Maynard's average of 22.8 yards per catch was high.

Grand Slam Halts Boston Win Streak

by TOM SALADINO

Associated Press Sports Writer
A grand slam home run snapped Boston's winning spring season but Red Sox Manager Dick Williams was smiling. His thoughts were on bigger things—like a crashing double by Tony Conigliaro.

The Minnesota Twins, aided by Ted Uhlaender's second-inning home run with the bases full, stopped Boston 7-6 Tuesday, after the Red Sox had taken their first three spring baseball exhibitions.

In the top of the inning, Conigliaro smashed a pitch by left-hander Jim Ollum off the fence in left center field for a stand-up double. A strong wind helped cut down what looked like a sure home run.

"He's looked very, very good," an elated Williams said. "There isn't a gutsier player in the American League," referring to the 24-year-old Tony C, who is trying to come back after a near-disastrous beating by California pitcher Jack Hamilton which fractured his cheekbone on Aug. 18, 1967.

Conigliaro, whose hit was his first of the spring—although he's been hitting the ball hard—is now one for six. More importantly he has only struck out once and that was a called third strike.

Last spring Conigliaro attempted to come back, but after getting only six hits in 55 at bats and striking out 22 times, the 1965 AL home run champion, gave up in despair.

However the outfielder now says his eyesight is perfect again and Williams is counting on him for a regular berth.

Meanwhile, another fellow named Williams—Ted—wasn't doing much smiling.

The new manager of the Washington Senators had seen his team lose five straight times although they did end a scoreless string at 19 innings.

Baltimore nipped Washington 2-1, helped by 14 bases on balls by Senator pitching. Tim Lincecum's run-scoring single in the eighth inning got Washington its run.

Montreal Has the Number of St. Louis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
St. Louis may be the best in the West but Montreal's East Division leaders have given them nothing but the Blues.

The Canadiens stopped St. Louis 3-0 Tuesday night on a light National Hockey League schedule, extending the Blues' winless streak to 14 games with Montreal.

In the only other game, Boston and Minnesota played to a 3-3 tie.

Yvan Cournoyer and Henri Richard scored early power play goals for Montreal goalie and Gump Worsley racked up his fifth shutout of the season.

The Canadiens' Mickey Redmond added a second-period goal.

The expansion Blues, who already have clinched the West Division title, have registered only two ties against the Canadiens in two years, including four straight losses in the finals of last year's Stanley Cup playoffs.

The victory increased Montreal's first-place margin to two points over the Bruins in the rugged battle for the East's top spot.

Minnesota's Ray Cullen knocked in a rebound with 6:13 remaining to play, earning the tie as two NHL season records were set and a tie.

Minnesota's Danny Grant, who scored both North Stars' earlier goals, now has 31 for the season, breaking the rookie record of 30 set by Bernie Geoffrion in 1951-52.

Bruins' center Phil Esposito, the league's leading scorer with 109 points, snapped the season and playoff assist record of 67 held by Stan Mikita and Dickie Moore, when he added two for 68.

Esposito got his assists on first and second period goals by Ron Murphy while defenseman Bobby Orr added the other goal and an assist.

Orr's two points tied the record for most points in a season by a defenseman with 59, the same as Pierre Plante in 1964-65.

Californians Beat Russians

Long Shot Gives Reddies a Victory

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Henderson scored on a court-length pass in the final period for a 78-76 victory over St. John's of Collegeville, Minn., in the first round of the NAIA basketball tournament Tuesday.

Timothy Muller went for the final shot for St. John's with the score tied 76-76 and missed. Henderson called time with three seconds remaining.

Warren Harshaw then entered the game for Henderson for the first time, got behind the St. John's defense and grabbed Ron Dunning's pass for the score.

Henderson's Danny Davis was game high-point man with 24. Muller was high for St. John's with 21.

Brown Likes to Play the N.Y. Nets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Roger Brown of the Indiana Pacers probably would like to play all his games in the American Basketball Association against the New York Nets.

The former 6-foot-5 player for Dayton University set an Indiana club individual one game record by scoring 46 points in leading the Pacers to a 122-112 victory over the Nets at Long Island Arena Tuesday night.

On Brown's previous visit to the Nets' home court, he threw in 41 points for his then individual ABA high.

Brown, a native of Brooklyn, N.Y., hit on 15-of-29 field goal attempts and made 16-of-19 free throws in helping the Pacers move within .440 percentage points of the first-place Kentucky Colonels in the Eastern Division.

Art Heyman's 13-foot jumper at the buzzer gave the Minnesota Pipers a 130-128 road victory over the Houston Mavericks.

Bob Verga tallied 42 points in a losing cause as the Mavericks dropped their eighth straight.

Los Angeles took a 74-56 halftime lead and went on for a 131-115 road victory over Oakland in the other scheduled ABA game.

Larry Miller poured in 47 points for the Stars as they thwarted Oakland's attempt to clinch the Western Division championship.

In the National Basketball Association, New York whipped Philadelphia 121-101, Chicago beat Atlanta 102-90, San Diego downed Phoenix 116-106 and Los Angeles routed Detroit 137-101.

Will Captain Second Season

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Thatcher Shellaby is the first player in more than a decade named to captain Yale's basketball team for two seasons.

Vetoed Are Knocked Out in Senate

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The two houses of the Arkansas General Assembly strolled in opposite directions in dealing with administration matters Tuesday as the Senate overrode three of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's vetoes and the House approved four measures that would produce almost $9 million in new revenue.

The Senate voted 27-5 to override the veto of a controversial bill to transfer control over local and county audits to the legislative branch of state government.

Rockefeller said in his veto message that the bill, which cleared both chambers without debate and triggered temper flare-ups in the House last week, was unconstitutional because it was transferring a function of the executive branch.

The other bills approved over Rockefeller's veto would require candidates for congressional, state, district and county office to be elected by majority vote instead of by a plurality and to permit a sheriff to receive a depreciation allowance for the use of a private automobile in the performance of his duties.

The House approved the following tax proposals:

- A bill to increase the tax on corporate income, with an estimated annual yield of $6.1 million.
- A bill to impose a documentary stamp tax on the transfer of real property, to yield $1.5 million a year.
- A bill to increase the price of two-year driver licenses from $4 to $6, with an anticipated $1.1 million increase in revenue.

— A bill to impose a 15 per cent excise tax on smoking and chewing tobacco and toher tobacco products. It would raise about $200,000 per year.

The lower chamber did, however, clobber two of the administration's major tax measures—one to increase the personal income tax was crushed 12-73 and another to subject certain services to the three per cent gross receipts tax fell 6-78.

Sen. Fred Stafford of Marked Tree, author of the audit bill, questioned Rockefeller standing behind the Constitution in vetoing it.

"If he is abiding by the Constitution, why doesn't he follow it."

the attorney general's opinions?" asked Stafford. "He's been operating unconstitutionally ever since he's been in office."

In his veto message, the governor said the bill would transfer the auditing responsibility "to a place where these activities may be more sensitive to political pressures."

Rockefeller added, "I must further note that during the progress of this particular proposal through the General Assembly, Sheriff Marlin Hawkins of Conway County was prominent in his activities to obtain the passage of this bill. This, in itself, suggests the motivations behind its adoption."

The governor also said the legislature had "devoted a disproportionate amount of time to diluting or restricting the powers of the chief executive and altering election laws to the particular benefit of one political organization and to the detriment of the people."

A bitter fight is expected in the House on any attempt to complete the override. Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock has charged that the bill was being pushed by the "courtroom Cosa Nostra."

Stafford said his bill only carried out the recommendation of a study made by Peat, Marwick, Mitchell & Co. of Chicago in 1964. He said Rockefeller probably had paid for the study.

The vote to override the bill requiring candidates to receive a majority vote in a general election was 29-3. The measure envisions greater political activity at the local level by the American Independent party.

Sen. Guy H. "Mutt" Jones of Conway called the governor's veto of the sheriff measure "asinine." The vote to override that veto was 26-4.

Three of the four tax bills approved by the House were Senate measures which now go to the governor for his signature. The other — the corporate income measure — was a House bill which goes to the Senate.

Debate was brief on all but the real estate transfer tax bill. The corporate income tax measure passed 76-13. It calls for a graduated scale of taxation on foreign and domestic corporations ranging from one per cent on the first $3,000 net income to six per cent on all net income in excess of $25,000.

The bill had been defeated twice earlier in the session but was kept alive when the lower chamber voted to expunge the vote both times.

Cockrill handled the real estate transfer tax measure which was debated for about 30 minutes, pulled down temporarily and then finally passed later in the day after a proposed amendment was defeated. The vote on the bill was 52-49. It came on reconsideration only minutes after it had failed 45-50, with 51 votes needed.

It provides for a tax of $3 per $1,000 value of the property being transferred and the funds are earmarked for use by the Arkansas Children's Colony, in developing state parks and for the counties.

The tobacco measure passed 65-19 and the driver license proposal 75-7. The money derived from the increase in driver license prices would be earmarked to provide pay increase in driver license prices would be earmarked to provide pay raises for the State Police.

Last Single Beatle Weds U.S. Divorcee

By COLIN FROST
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP)—Paul McCartney, the last bachelor Beatle, married a blonde American divorcee in a civil ceremony today, pushed his way through 50 screaming girls and said, "I feel fine."

McCartney, 26, smiled broadly as he left the Marylebone Registry office with his bride, Linda Eastman, 27.

The new Mrs. McCartney, who is 27, appeared bewildered and frightened as teen-age girls surged around her, screaming, "Paul! Paul!" She carried her 6-year-old daughter, Heather, by a previous marriage.

Miss Eastman is a photographer and a daughter of a New York lawyer.

Many of the bridegroom's young female admirers sobbed and clutched bouquets as they broke away from 250 other spectators and pushed through a police line to McCartney and his bride coming down the registry office steps.

After the couple struggled into an automobile, the girls pounded on the roof and windows and threw themselves over the hood.

Sirhan Always a Potential Murderer

By HARRY F. ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Had Sirhan Bishara Sirhan been examined before the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, a defense psychologist says, he probably would have been spotted as a potential murderer.

And yet, Sirhan's mental capacity was so stunted that he could not form a meaningful, mature a plot against the senator, Dr. Martin Schorr testified Tuesday in Sirhan's murder trial.

That point is crucial to Sirhan's defense. His lawyers hope to save him from a death sentence by convincing the jury the shooting of Kennedy was the result of a sick, obsessed mind.

Could Sirhan have acted with malice aforethought? "No," said Schorr.

Under cross-examination by prosecutor John E. Howard, the psychologist was asked whether he could have predicted Kennedy's assassination if Sirhan had been tested earlier.

"With a reasonable degree of certainty, murder is predictable," Schorr said. He added that of 100 people chosen at random, three or four would be shown by psychological tests as having the potential for murder under stress.

"Sirhan would have been one of these three or four," he said. "If I had to live with one of these three or four I would be very fearful."

"I'm not saying I could have predicted Sirhan would kill the senator," Schorr said, "but tests would have pointed to Sirhan as an odds-on favorite who would do something like this."

The 24-year-old Jordanian listened with obvious fascination as the psychologist described him as a Jekyll-Hyde personality.

"I don't think he's at all aware that the personality of the assaulter is within him at all," said Schorr.

Sirhan said he cannot remember going to his car to get his gun or shooting the senator early in the morning of June 5 last year. He has said he has no memory of anything that happened between the time he returned to Kennedy's hotel—after drinking there earlier—to the time when people were trying to subdue him after the shooting.

"In a dissociated state, an individual will show memory gaps," Schorr testified. "An individual will remember events close up to and surrounding, but not including the act. By contrast, the individual trying to mangle or fake will characteristically remember item by item in detail right up to the actual use of the weapon."

"Adding to this concept of diminished capacity is this man's complete lack of awareness of what has been happening. He behaved like a man on a picnic," Schorr referred earlier to Sirhan's frequent smiles in the courtroom as indicative that he did not realize the gravity of his situation.

Return to Earth Most Dangerous

By PAUL REGER
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP)—In man's reach for the stars, his return to mother earth remains the most dangerous part of the adventure.

Re-entry and recovery is still the least controlled and most imprecise maneuver of a tightly controlled and very precise business.

Earth landings from space have been hundreds of miles off target at worst, and thousands of yards off at best.

The only man to die in a space flight was killed on re-entry. And one of the nearest approaches to death by an American spaceman came after re-entry, but before recovery.

Soviet cosmonaut Vladimir M. Kormarov, after safely flying 18 orbits on April 24, 1967, was killed when he returned. Parachutes on his spacecraft failed and he died as his spacecraft crashed to the earth.

Virgil I. Grissom had to swim for his life when his Liberty Bell 7 spacecraft sank after landing safely in the Atlantic Ocean following a suborbit flight in 1961.

Three of the other original seven American astronauts also had cliff-hanger re-entries.

John H. Glenn, the first American to orbit the earth, re-entered after a light flashed aboard his Friendship 8 spacecraft giving an indication the vehicle's heat shield had broken loose. It had not.

Scott Carpenter's Aurora 7 flight ended with a 250-mile overshoot of the landing zone and naval ships spent hours hunting him in the Atlantic Ocean while the world held its breath.

L. Gordon Cooper had to fly his Faith 7 spacecraft to its landing zone manually after an automatic re-entry system failed on board.

Gemini V, with astronauts Cooper and Charles Conrad aboard, had to land one orbit early to avoid a brewing hurricane.

Because of the imprecision of re-entry—the spacecraft cannot be controlled in the atmosphere—huge areas of the earth's surface must be earmarked for a return from space.

The American space program, with the services of a two-ocean Navy, uses the seas for landing strips. Russia, with one-seventh of the earth's land mass within its borders, uses its northeastern area.

American space officials regard the ocean landing as the safest, but American astronauts have expressed some unhappiness about the choice.

N.Y. Governor Going to S. America

By CHARLES DUMAS
Associated Press Writer

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said today he will go to South America as the ears of the White House—to receive views of national leaders "on whatever subjects they wish to discuss."

Accordingly, the New York governor said, he will make no effort during a series of forthcoming trips to promote a new "Good Neighbor" policy he drafted last year when he was competing with Richard M. Nixon for the presidency.

The policy was set forth in a 3,000-word paper saying that if nominated and elected Rockefeller would propose among other things:

- Establishing a "small peace-keeping force" under the Organization of American States (OAS) "for use in disputes among members or, more importantly, in cases where elements alien to the hemisphere threaten the security of any member."
- Bringing Canada into the OAS on the ground that "our northern neighbor has a major contribution to make to Western hemisphere relations."
- Strengthening the OAS by establishing "a constituent body" made up of parliamentary representatives from the American republics.
- Establishing a Latin American common market and encouraging creation of a hemisphere free trade area.
- Opening the East Andean jungles to development and harnessing South America's "vast water potential" by creating seven huge artificial lakes with low-level dams at an estimated cost of $500 million. Rockefeller did not pinpoint the sites.
- Undertaking cooperative efforts to establish regional universities, solve urban problems and "mobilize the youth of the hemisphere for social progress."

At the time, Rockefeller voiced strong concern about deterioration of Latin American relations—the very reason that Nixon has requested him to undertake the special mission.

Rockefeller was an architect of the original "Good Neighbor" policy of the early 1940's, while serving as assistant secretary of state for American republic affairs in the Roosevelt administration.

Rockefeller told an Albany news conference Tuesday that he would begin a series of trips to Latin America shortly after the State Legislature ends its 1969 session.

HOPE NEWSPAPER HISTORY:
The 1929 consolidation joined the two principal newspaper lines dating back to within five years of Hope's incorporation in 1875.
1899—Star of Hope founded as a weekly by Claude Mc-Corkle; converted to an evening daily by his son, Ed. McCorkle, publishing until the 1929 consolidation.

The opposition line:
1880—Hope News founded by Lowry Brothers.
1883—Sold to Withers & Johnson, name changed to Hope Telegraph.

1883—Later in same year resold to Claude McCorkle and renamed Hope Mercury.
1884—Sold to James H. Betts, who named it Hope Gazette, under which name it was published continuously until 1922, published by Betts, J.L. Tullis, and Col. W.W.
Folsom the last-named dying in 1916.

1916—Purkins & Gates bought the weekly Gazette and made it a companion paper to their new daily, Arkansas Evening Herald
—but both papers suspended in 1922.

1928—Plant was revived by Curtis Cannon as the weekly Hempstead County Review.
1927—Cannon sold plant to D.A. Gean, who established the morning Hope Daily Press.

1929—C.E. Palmer and A.H.
Washburn consolidated The Star and the Press as Hope Star, with Palmer as president and Washburn secretary-treasurer.

1957—Following Mr. Palmer's death Mrs. Palmer became president.
1969—With Mrs. Palmer's retirement from Star Publishing Co. Washburn became 76 per cent owner and president—balance 26 per cent being held by Texarkana Newspapers, Inc.

WORLD'S LARGEST plane, the Air Force C-5 Galaxy, makes a four-engine aerial tanker look like a toy. The huge transport flies through a trail of water laid down by the tanker to test the C-5's ability to withstand ice buildup. Water sprayed from the tanker either turns immediately into ice crystals or becomes supercooled and freezes when agitated by contact with the plane. The Galaxy will be tested by the Air Force and Lockheed through mid-1970 from Panama's tropics to Alaska's extreme cold.

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Effective Treatment Depends on Cause

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—What causes a burning feeling on urination? What will relieve it?

A—The cause may be cysti-titis (inflammation of the bladder), a highly acid urine or a bladder stone. Your doctor must discover the cause before he can prescribe effective treatment.

Q—I have a bladder infection, an aftermath of a difficult childbirth. I am taking Gantanol, which helps, but as soon as I stop taking it the trouble returns. Is there anything I can do to clear up this infection?

A—Gantanol is a sulfa drug that is usually effective against urinary infections. It is necessary to continue its use for at least 10 days after the symptoms are relieved or the infection is likely to return. If you have recurrences in spite of this precaution, yours is a deep-seated infection that may require the services of a urologist.

It may help to have a urine culture to determine what organisms are causing the infection. Then your doctor can select drugs known to be effective against these germs. In stubborn cases, several drugs have been found to be beneficial—nitro-furantoin, nitrofurantoin, nalidixic acid (NegGram) or sulfamethizole. Sometimes treatment with these drugs has to be continued uninterrupted for a year.

Q—Whenever I become excited or nervous I have to urinate so frequently that it is embarrassing. Is there anything I can do to get over this?

A—This is a common complaint. Frequency may be due to a variety of causes, but if nervous tension is the cause you may need a short course of a tranquilizer and lessons in how to relax.

Q—In 1964 I was operated on for a bladder tumor.
Ever since then I have had bladder stones. Is there any cure for this condition?

A—If the stones are too large to pass through your urethra a urologist can introduce a cystoscope into your bladder and through this tube, using another instrument, he can crush the stones. Salicylates can then be given in carefully controlled dosage to prevent the formation of further stones.

Q—In a recent column you stated that chewing tobacco would cause the same damage as cigarettes. How can chewing tobacco cause lung cancer?

A—It can't. I should have stated that it has the same effect on the heart, blood pressure and circulation.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

MORE WHYOWHYS

Dear Helen: Whyohwhy is the word "mother" practically sacred, yet when you add an "in-law" to it, that same sainted person becomes a she-devil? Could a person change so quickly?

Let's start a "break the image" movement. Down with discrimination against mothers-in-law! I plan to be one someday, and I hate to think the girl our son will marry will see me first as a dreaded threat and second as someone to make jokes about. Why and how did the "in-law" thing bommerang? — FUTURE BADDY

Dear F.B.: I don't know who cracked the first mother-in-law joke, but he doesn't deserve a medal.

Anyone for image-breaking? — H.

Dear Helen: We were recently invited to a party with thirty other guests. We are mature types who don't break furniture. The only drinking we did was coffee with the buffet lunch.

I'm sure we would have all fitted into the host's large living room, but instead we were routed to the cellar. It wasn't even fixed up as a playroom.

I am not the only one who was offended. Imagine, having a dress-up party in the basement! Next time I'll wear blue jeans and tennis shoes! Do you blame us for being mad? — BANISHED TO THE BASEMENT

Dear Ban: If guests are congenial, the food is good, and the host keeps things lively, who cares whether they meet in the cellar or the upstairs parlor? Sometimes the least pretentious parties are the most fun. — H.

Dear Helen: I had to smile at the woman who suffered when her "very friendly" but cold-blooded husband set his side of the electric blanket at "5" and she roasted because they both slept in the middle of the bed.

After facing this problem for 21 years, I would like to comment that your advice about turning off her control was good — electric control switch, I mean.

I also buy me husband flannel-ette pajamas while I wear a sheer summerweight nightie all year round. Then we can both turn off the heat.

When all these fail, I use the oh-so-gentle nudge when he is asleep, so that he won't drag his too-warm side of the blanket over to my side; or else I sleep catty-cornered and play footsie on his side of the bed. This keeps him happy and in place.

But if nothing works, I simply roast and give thanks that after 21 years, we are still "very friendly." — MORE THAN HALF-BAKED

Dear Helen: Could you tell me how come a wife can sleep through slam bang TV westerns but not through the very gentle snoring of her husband? Surely the rhythm of a snore should lull a woman to sleep much better than the screams, shots and howls on television. — NOT A BUZZ SAW

Dear Not: Unanswerable question Number 7693!

I'll counter with another: How come a man can sleep through his own snoring when a "gentle" buzz saw outside his window would wake him up swearing? — H.

Things Are Normal Again in France

By CARL HARTMAN
Associated Press Writer

PARIS (AP) — After 24 hours of cold-water shaves and hitchhiking to work, France returned to normal today with President Charles de Gaulle wrathfully vowing to defend "the currency, the economy and the republic" against labor's demands for higher wages.

The big labor unions felt Tuesday's general strike and a demonstration in Paris by an estimated 60,000 to 100,000 workers would pressure the government into raising its wage increase offer above the 4 per cent limit. The unions are asking for 10 to 12 per cent more.

De Gaulle in a broadcast Tuesday night stood firm, warning that France is just starting to recover from the crippling effects of last spring's student-labor turmoil. He said strikers would not be allowed to threaten the franc with devaluation and throw the country into chaos again.

The 78-year-old French leader accused the labor bosses of unleashing "a new offensive ... threatening to bring down the currency the economy and the republic."

"Do I need to declare they will be firmly defended?" he asked.

The wage negotiations deadlocked when the government insisted anything beyond a 4 per cent wage increase would result in inflation and might force devaluation of the franc.

French unions call strikes for only limited periods, usually 24 hours, because they do not have the funds to pay their members strike pay as American unions do. The wage demands and the strike announcement spurred a new gold rush last week in European bullion markets on the theory the franc might be devalued. But gold prices dropped in Tuesday's trading.

The demonstration in Paris produced a clash between chanting strikers and police, who charged with truncheons and tear gas to clear the Boulevard du Temple after some youths started to dig up paving stones for a barricade. About 230 demonstrators were arrested, at least one was hospitalized and police said 12 officers were hurt.

The strike was taken in stride by Frenchmen. For most of the 11.3 million schoolchildren it was a holiday because teachers' unions supported the walkout. Commuters hitched rides into Paris on military vehicles mobilized by the government.

Public transportation was cut to a trickle, electricity and gas supplies were at a fraction of their normal levels, newspaper presses stopped, and many public services and private industries closed for the day.

Candlelight lunches and cold cuts were a common sight in restaurants.

Opposition to ABM Plan Mounting

Arkansans got pretty mad Tuesday night watching the television cameras' report of the shabby treatment given Robert Sarver, State Commissioner of Correction, as he sought to answer ex-Commissioner Thomas O. Murton's charges of brutality in our state prison system, before Sen. Thomas J. Dodd's Juvenile Delinquency Subcommittee.

Sarver was given an outrageous "brush-off" for attempting to present a sovereign state's official answer to the slanders spread by a discredited and discharged public servant.

Dodd, the only senator present at the hearing, obviously was determined to make Arkansas and its people an All-American whipping-boy.

The irony of it was that this same Sen. Dodd was recently censured by the United States Senate for personal use of campaign funds — the most unsavory of characters to be sitting in judgment upon Arkansas, its government and its people.

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, a Negro, was suspended by the House of Representatives for misuse of public funds — and now white Americans flinch every time they hear the name "Dodd."

The Star has a comedy of errors confronting it in our attempt to turn out a process color production on the Evening Grosbeak which is visiting our town in great numbers.

As we reported yesterday, our first 10 Ektachromes shot at the Robert L. Maney residence, 1211 E. Second St., produced but one fair picture of a Grosbeak. The final batch of 10 transparencies came in this morning — this time the birds turn out to be Purple Finches, cousins and traveling companions of the Grosbeaks, and only one of the last 10 photos is a "possible" for publication.

Harry W. Shiver telephoned us later this morning, however, that Mrs. Shiver's feeding station at 309 N. Main St., has a gang of Grosbeaks early every morning — and we'll make a fourth attempt to get them on film Thursday, weather permitting. The weather, of course, is about as confusing as the birds — even when the sun appears to be bright in Spring it misleads a light-meter into making too high a reading, and you learn to discount the reading 25 to 50 per cent to avoid underexposure. And then when you do hit the exposure right on the nose — the nose turns out to be the wrong bird's beak.

A brief history of Hope's newspapers, beginning only five years after the town's incorporation in 1875, appears in our revised Editorial Flag on today's Classified Page. Some of those early papers changed hands twice in the same year — naturally enough, for subscribers and advertisers were scarce in frontier days. It's a worth-while chapter of local history and will be carried daily except when space demands require temporary omission. The Editorial Flag is required by the Post Office Department — but the history section may be eliminated when the paper is crowded.

43 Hurt in Bus Accident

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP) — Forty-three persons were injured Tuesday night when a bus went out of control and ran down a 60-foot embankment, authorities said.

The driver, Jorge Rosales Durazo, 21, said, "As we began to pick up speed on the downgrade, I stepped on the brake pedal and it caught. Then, suddenly, the pedal went all the way to the floor. I tried the hand brake but I couldn't stop the bus, so I tried to shift into low gear and I just couldn't do it...."

I began dodging oncoming cars and looking for a solid structure to crash against. I hit a house corner, then dove down a cliff until we came to a stop. Screaming passengers rolled down on top of me and I saw many bleeding and crying for help."

The injured persons were taken to a nearby hospital. Officials there said none of the injuries was critical.

By H. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is awaiting the return of his secretary of defense from Vietnam before making a final decision on deployment of the Sentinel antiballistic missile — ABM — system.

White House Press secretary Ronald L. Zeigler said a decision still is planned this week, but not before Nixon confers with Melvin R. Laird. The defense chief, a supporter of ABM deployment, is due home late tonight from a war-zone inspection.

The subject was also before the National Security Council again today.

Zeigler did not rule out the possibility that Nixon would announce his decision on nationwide radio and television. However, Zeigler said the President did not want any such announcement to compete with the Apollo 9 splashdown Thursday morning.

Nixon told a news conference last Thursday he would announce a decision on the controversial Sentinel system the first of this week. But he delayed action after an intensive weekend review in Florida.

As the delay stretched into Tuesday with the President showing no sign he had selected one of the three apparent options, opponents of the ABM mounted a new effort to get the $5 billion project scrapped. Besides the unlikely possibility of junking the ABM, Nixon could compromise with orders for a limited deployment or order fullscale resumption of the project he halted several weeks ago amid criticism of cost and fear of accidental detonation of one of the nuclear-tipped defenses.

As Apollo 9 Prepares for Splashdown Storm Lashed Atlantic Eyed

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Flight controllers today delayed Thursday's Apollo 9 landing by one orbit — 90 minutes — to escape storm-lashed seas southwest of Bermuda.

By circling the globe an extra time, the astronauts will land 480 miles south of the main splashdown area, near Grand Turk Island in the Bahamas, where weather conditions are expected to be excellent.

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Weathermen kept watch on the storm-lashed Atlantic recovery area today as the Apollo 9 astronauts neared the end of their space journey, heading for a possible rough landing Thursday.

If high winds and heavy seas continue in the area 200 miles southwest of Bermuda, flight controllers may shift the landing zone by delaying the firing of the spaceship's retrorocket.

Astronauts James A. McDivitt, David R. Scott and Russell L. Schweickart have four options; to land where planned or to delay the firing by a few minutes, by one orbit or by

Peace Talks in Paris Mark Time

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

PARIS (AP) — The Vietnam peace talks have taken on the look of a time-marking exercise to hold the fort. They appear to have been downgraded to window-dressing for prospective private activity that might be more fruitful.

Developments could come in diplomatic dialogue between Washington and Hanoi, carried on by third parties, or some time in the future between the Saigon government and the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong.

Statements by South Vietnamese representatives indicate Saigon is sometimes restive under American leadership, of a mind to do some tentative probing of its own, and fed up with what Saigon's foreign minister calls the "dialogue de sourds" — the dialogue of the deaf — in Paris.

The NLF also seems at times to be creating problems for its North Vietnamese sponsors by publicly and categorically resisting the idea of secret negotiations.

three orbits.

Any decision to delay the retrorocket would take the astronauts away from stormy seas. But they still would land in the Atlantic south of Bermuda.

There was a slim possibility of an early landing today, but Flight Director Eugene Kranz considered this unlikely.

Kranz said Tuesday that Mission Control weather forecasters were optimistic that conditions would be favorable for landing on target Thursday. He said there prediction was for winds 15 to 20 knots, waves four to five feet high, with 10-foot swells.

This would be some of the roughest weather that U.S. astronauts ever have landed in. If they had to wait any length of time for pickup, they could become very uncomfortable in their bobbing spacecraft.

Recovery day forecasts from the main recovery ship, the carrier Guadalcanal, were more pessimistic, with winds ranging up to gale-force 32 miles an hour and six- to eight-foot seas.

The Guadalcanal, which has been riding out the storm for several days, steamed Monday to a central position, ready to move swiftly to whatever recovery zone was selected.

McDivitt expressed concern Monday when he spotted whitecaps in the recovery area from more than 100 miles in space. "That's not down to my specifications," the Apollo 9 commander said, when informed of the forecast.

"I want those recovery guys to find a nice soft piece of water with no wind and no waves, and lots of sunshine, too.... Oh yes, I forgot one thing. A couple helicopters too," he said.

Firing Again Breaks Out Along Suez

TEL AVIV (AP) — Light-arms fire broke out along the Suez Canal today and Israeli and Jordanian forces traded fire in the Jordan Valley.

The Israeli army in Tel Aviv said the Egyptians started the new round of hostilities along the canal with sniper fire. Israeli troops fired back, the army said.

Israeli soldiers fired in the air to quell a schoolboys' riot in the occupied Gaza Strip. Officials said 500 schoolboys charged an Israeli helicopter, throwing stones and chanting curses and Palestine slogans.

Dodd Sticks to Backing of Murton

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite complaints that he treated them unfairly, Sen. Thomas J. Dodd is sticking to his position that Arkansas officials failed to refute earlier testimony that brutality still exists in the state's prisons.

"My position is that Murton was telling the truth," Dodd said, referring to testimony given last week by Thomas O. Murton. He contended that "conditions essentially reverted to their previous levels" of brutality after he was dismissed in 1967 as superintendent of the state's prison system.

Robert Sarver, Arkansas commissioner of corrections, told the Senate juvenile delinquency subcommittee Tuesday that Murton's testimony was "filled with untruths, half-truths, innuendoes and unwarranted conclusions."

In response, Dodd cited as evidence of continuing brutality Murton's testimony about two incidents last fall — one the shooting of 75 prisoners with birdshot and the other the chaining of a prisoner to an outdoor fence after he tried five times to escape.

Dodd rejected Sarver's claim that he is not responsible for such incidents since they occurred before he took office last Nov. 15. "There's no brutality going on now," Sarver told the subcommittee.

After the hearing Murton, who was present, was asked if he could cite any examples of brutality since Sarver took office. He said he could not and added: "I never contended it went on since 1967."

Sarver told reporters afterwards, "I don't feel that I got an opportunity to state my case. It was pretty well set up in advance."

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Georgia Sousa recognized the bandit at her teller's cage at Security Pacific National Bank. " weren't you in here last Friday?" she asked. Replied the gunman: "No, I was at Crocker Citizen."

Then, he apparently knew he was confused and fled empty-handed. Larry R. Walton, 25, was arrested later Tuesday by friend's house and booked on suspicion of bank robbery.

Fewer U.S. Casualties, But Still High

WASHINGTON (AP) — Preliminary reports from Saigon indicate that fewer than 350 American soldiers died in the second week of the enemy offensive in South Vietnam, which ended last Saturday, Pentagon sources report.

The figure is about 100 lower than the first week, but still heavier than in any other comparable period since late August.

President Nixon has linked U.S. casualties to a possible response to the enemy shelling of es in Vietnam.

"We will note attacks which result in heavier casualties to our men at a time that we are honestly trying to seek peace at the conference table in Paris," he told a news conference March 4.

When the new official casualty total is released Thursday, it is expected to bring U.S. losses in more than eight years of Vietnam fighting to within 1,000 of this country's Korean war battle deaths.

According to official statistics, 33,629 Americans died in battle in Korea between June 1950 and July 1953.

Big Turnout as Routon, Holt Win

Nearly 1,500 persons cast ballots in Hope District school election Tuesday, perhaps the largest turnout for a school election in history, certainly in recent years.

There was no question of the trend in the turnout yesterday. The regular 40 mill tax was approved overwhelmingly 1125 for and 264 against.

Incumbent Dr. Forney G. Holt defeated D.E. (Gene) Allen 1173 to 226 for a three year term; and William Routon, incumbent, defeated Mrs. Esther Lee Hicks, 1144 to 321. This too is a three year term.

Elsewhere in Hempstead the vote was as follows:

Blevins Dist. 2: Post No. 1, (one year term) L.D. Little 115 and Weldon "Dock" Fulton 53; For continuing 40 mill tax 123, against 36.

Patmos: Wayne Attebury, unopposed for director; for 35 mill tax 28, against 2.

Treaty Backers Are Showing Their Muscles

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate backers of the nuclear non-proliferation treaty, showing their muscle in a test vote, have made it clear they intend to send the White House a pact with no strings attached.

In a 61-30 vote Tuesday, the Senate rejected a proposal by Democrat Sam Ervin of North Carolina to add a reservation to the treaty declaring the United States was not obligated to defend nonnuclear nations from atomic attack.

Although other reservations were before the Senate today, the initial test made ratification, possibly, Thursday, appear all but certain.

Ervin said that without his reservation this country might find itself confronted with demands to respond to a nuclear attack.

But Chairman J. W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, floor manager for the treaty, insisted no such commitments were involved and the Ervin reservation was not needed.

The vote came on a motion to table and thus kill the North Carolinian's proposal.

In other debate on the treaty to curb the spread of nuclear weapons, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, assistant Democratic leader, termed it "a way station on the path to a disarmament agreement."
